ABOUT US

Sunday World – Much More Than A Tabloid

The Sunday World, published by Fundudzi Media, is South Africa's premier provider of exclusive, reliable but hipper celebrity news. Considered the original South African tabloid newspaper for its juicy, playful and irreverent news coverage, the Sunday World is evolving into a wholesome family read that covers quality political, business and in-depth sport content. While tabloid news remains the mainstay of our content mix, readers and advertisers will increasingly find there is a tapestry of choices in their favourite paper than was the case previously. As the paper evolves, its approach to major issues facing the country allows both advertisers and our news team to package themed content that readers can sink their teeth into on any given Sunday. These include special features on education; health and lifestyle; travel; science and technology; housing and infrastructure development; mobility; entrepreneurship and the impact of the economy.

Our website and social media platforms provide readers and advertisers with a unique and enriching experience. As we weave changes into the brand, we ensure that the Sunday World's seal of quality permeates every platform we use to connect with our audiences. This has become key in this age of web-based hoaxes, fake news and "alternative facts" where ubiquitous information on the net generates confusion whose tonic is our reliable Sunday World – in print or on digital platforms. There are many things that worry many people on a daily basis. Choosing how to extend the reach of your brand or services shouldn't be one of them!
